

We are all Different and all Special

A collection of eight diverse cartoon characters arranged in a circle, representing various ethnicities and ages. The characters include a young girl with long brown hair, a young girl with dark skin and curly hair, a young girl with red hair and sunglasses, a young boy with glasses and a striped shirt, a young girl with long black hair and a purple flower, a young girl with curly blonde hair holding a black cat, a young girl with short black hair, and a young girl with dark skin and braided hair. Each character is set against a different colored circular background.